

2022 AUSii Conference

Australia US Innovation and Investment

TECHNOLOGY: THE INTERSECTION OF ENERGY, SPACE AND MEDICINE

DECEMBER 5, 2022

1:00 - 5:30PM

UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON DOWNTOWN

The 13th Annual Australia US Innovation and Investment (AUSii) Conference will once again be held at the University of Houston Downtown on Monday, December 5, 2022. The event focus will be on “Technology - the Intersection of Energy, Space and Medicine”. Technology is the linchpin connecting the rapid evolution of these three great economic forces benefiting the economies of Texas and Australia.

As a conference attendee, you will have the opportunity to network with business leaders, entrepreneurs and industry experts who are focused on the issues impacting businesses today, and who are committed to fostering the relationships between Australian, Texan and US businesses and organizations.
